

Job Specification

Title	Director, Software Development
Location	Gothenburg, Sweden
Department	R&D Department
Reporting to	Henrik Storm
Purpose of Position	Mentice is now looking for a Director of Software Development to join a great multi-cultural R&D team (we have over 17 nationalities in total and offices in Sweden, USA and Asia) of passionate Software Developers, Hardware Designers and Project Managers. As a Director of Software Development at Mentice, you will be driving and working with our SW Application team consisting of skilled software developers to create new state-of-the art medical simulation products for our customers. Your team works closely with our Project Managers and SW Platform team to develop Mentice products in several parallel projects.
Main tasks and areas of responsibility	Specification of main tasks and areas of responsibility - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Organize and drive the work of the SW Application development team at Mentice Work with the Mentice SW Platform and Project Management teams to coordinate tasks and resources in the several ongoing parallel development projects. Participate in the SW Development work. Coordinate efforts with our US Development team. Personnel responsibility for the Gothenburg SW Application team. Write and review project and product documentation.
Competence and requirement	The following are required - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A solid technical background with several years experience in software development with knowledge of C/C++, JavaScript, XML, HTML. Some knowledge from 3D modelling tools is a merit. Documented project- and team-leading experience; preferably in an international environment. Comfortable in an environment with many parallel ongoing projects, multiple stakeholders, and resource prioritization discussions. Excellent interpersonal and communication skills and a customer-oriented focus. Knowledge of Agile methodologies. A background within Healthcare or MedTech is considered as a merit. Very good knowledge of Swedish and English; both verbal and in writing. The position is based in our HQ office in Gothenburg but may involve occasional international travel. For questions regarding the position, please contact Henrik Storm (CTO) at henrik.storm@mentice.com